[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Gate City, Va., September 2.—C. S.
Pendleton, the Scott County Republican chairman, has issued a call for convention to be held at Gate City on Tuesday, September 23, to nominate a candidate for House of Delegates. candidate for House of Delegates. The known aspirants for the nomination are M. P. Taylor, the incumbent; Ryland Craft and Hugh M. Addington. These are all young men. Mr. Craft is a son of Rev. J. B. Craft, of Big Stone Gap. and is a recent graduate in law from Washington and Lee University. The Democratic chairman, C. C. Palmer, has sought to have a compromise candidate selected-one who would not antagonize the policy of the dominant party. Mr. Pendleton's call, however, indicates that the Republicans have a policy of their own, and will pay little attention to the wishes of the Demo-
